God's Praise, a part of Spirit of Living God Ministries, ministers in dance, sign language, and praise poetry to lead others into the presence of God.

The Lord has called God's Praise to minister salvation to the lost, healing to the sick, deliverance to the hurting, and to inspire the saved to develop a passion for the Lord through true worship.

God's Praise conducts biblical teachings; praise and worship seminars; and dance, sign language and praise poetry classes. God's Praise also assists other dance, sign language and praise poetry ministries with developing, coordinating and implementing.

About Our Founder

Patricia Cook

“Praise the Lord! Yes, really praise Him! I will praise Him as long as I live, yes, even with my dying breath.” Psalm 146:1-2

Patricia Cook fervently seeks to worship the Lord in spirit and truth through sacred dance. Her heart’s desire is to be intimate with the Lord and to lead others into His presence. She began studying dance at the age of nine.

In 1996, Patricia was called by God to minister in dance. In 1997, God laid it on the heart of Patricia to teach His Word, develop God’s Praise Ministry, and disciple others who had been called to dance before the Lord.

Patricia holds a Bachelors degree in Social Work from the University of Montevallo, a Masters degree in Rehabilitation Counseling from the University of Alabama at Birmingham and a Doctor of Ministry in Religious Fine Arts with Emphasis on Dance from Friends International Christian University.

She also ministers with the Restoration Ministry which is an outreach ministry that directs, challenges, encourages and inspires the body of Christ to experience “Intimacy With God”.

Patricia worships at Faith Chapel Christian Center in Birmingham, Alabama and assists with the dance ministry.

Carolyn Barnett

Carolyn worships the Lord with great passion in sacred dance before the body of Christ. She began dancing at an early age and continued throughout college. She was called into God’s Praise Ministry in 2000. She has led and assisted in developing dance ministries at various churches. She worships at Bethel Baptist Institutional Church in Jacksonville, Florida.

Wanda Edwards

Wanda began writing poems while she was in elementary school. In 2001, she obeyed the voice of the Lord to write His words in praise poetry. These inspirational poems are to be ministered to the saved, lost, sick and wounded. She has attended numerous writer’s workshops and began ministering with God’s Praise Ministry in 2001. She attends Lakewood Church in Houston, Texas.

Veronica Clark

Veronica attends Word of Life Christian Center in Birmingham, Alabama. She ministers in sacred dance like a warrior for the Lord. She has taken many dance classes and began ministering with God’s Praise Ministry in 2001. She worships the Lord both through dancing and singing as well as preaching the Word of God.

Maya Jones

Maya worships at the Cathedral of the Cross in Birmingham, Alabama where she ministers through sign language. At the age of six, she fell in love with American Sign Language, when a deaf person sold her family a card that had the American Sign Language alphabet on it. Twenty years later, she began taking sign language classes. She has taught sign language at churches and interpreted for world-renowned Christian artists. Maya has ministered with God’s Praise Ministry since 1998.

Nicole Dumas

Nicole graciously leads the congregation into the reverence of the Lord through sacred dance. She has studied dance since age 4. Nicole has led and assisted many churches in organizing and developing their dance ministries. She has worshipped in dance with God’s Praise Ministry since 1997.
